President Jim offered thanks for the food we were about to receive, which included fried fish, lasagna, potatoes, green beans, fried okra, salad, and apple cobbler. President Jim started the business meeting with various points of information including announcing that representatives from NC-20 will be presenting at the 9/17 meeting of the Pamlico County Commissioners; there will be a Rotary Foundation meeting in Williamston on October 10; and that he was nearly waylaid by several trucks carrying multiple porta-toilets. Secretary Chris indicated he would soon be ordering assorted Rotary paraphernalia and solicited interest from members in procuring related items. Treasurer Ben said the club had $42,378.45 in the checking account as of August 31. Rotarian Charles said the Tarpon Tournament would net more than $13,500, with $5500 being carried over for the ’13 Tarpon Tournament prizes. The tournament is scheduled for July 26-27. Rotarian Carl indicated he and Rotarian Joe would be coordinating the October 13 Nautical Flea Market. Rotarian Paul indicated he would be sharing information regarding being a sustaining member of the Rotary Foundation and Rotarian John encouraged CART support. Hugh sought additional contributions and received $76 more. Rotarian Sam was recognized for assisting in the project. Rotarian Sally recognized 4 Rotary birthdays – Rotarian Bob, Rotarian Tom, Rotarian Paul, and Rotarian Camilla. The poor preacher was livid when his wife brought home a $500 dress. "What made you do this?" "I don't know," she cried. "I entered the store, saw this dress, and suddenly found myself trying it on. It was as if the devil whispered, 'You look great in that dress. Buy it!' "Well," said the pastor, "you know how to deal with the devil. Just tell him, 'Get thee behind me, Satan!'
